

CITY OF LODI
COUNCIL COMMUNICATION

AGENDA TITLE: Adopt Resolution Authorizing Purchase of Mural Depicting Historic Japantown to be Located at the Buddhist Church Annex Building at 23 North Stockton Street

MEETING DATE: April 15, 2009

PREPARED BY: James Rodems

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase of a mural depicting Historic Japantown to be located at the Buddhist Church Annex Building at 23 North Stockton Street.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: In 2007, the Arts Advisory Board recommended the City Council appropriate $75,000 from the Art In Public Places fund for two murals by Lodi artist Tony Segale. On July 2, 2008, the City Council appropriated $46,000 from the fund for the first of the two planned murals.

Mr. Segale is presenting his design for the second mural for the City Council's approval. The first of these murals, depicting old Sacramento Street at 209 South Sacramento Street, was completed last month. The cost of that mural was $46,000. The design for the second, of Historic Japantown, was approved by the Buddhist Church community and then by the Art Advisory Board. The anticipated cost of this mural is $29,000, the balance of the $75,000 recommend by the Board.

FISCAL IMPACT $29,000 from the Art in Public Places program.

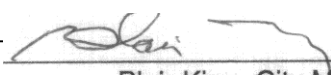

FUNDING AVAILABLE: Art in Public Places Account No. 01214.
